

Candace Pittenger

Candace Pittenger is a powerful healer working with a team of celestial masters known collectively as ADAMA. For over 17 years, Candace has used her God-given healing abilities to help thousands of people, young and old, frail and strong. Now working with ADAMA, she offers private sessions as well as group events for you to experience your own God consciousness.

Candace is an author and professional speaker who has appeared on over 500 radio and television shows nationwide.

She is the author of several books including Ribbons of Wisdom, How to Communicate with Our Elderly, which is endorsed by Dr. Wayne Dyer, PhD; Marianne Williamson and Dr. Ken Dychtwald.

As the Founder of The ADAMA Institute of Self Healing, she helps people heal themselves and create greater love, joy and laughter in their lives. Candace is the recipient of numerous awards for her nonprofit service to the elderly, and was nominated for the prestigious Service Award given by the President of the United States for her service throughout the country to the humanity that lies behind every person.

From The Masters.....Candace is a beautiful, angelic soul with incredible abilities to heal. All that she touches turns into peaceful, beautiful light energy. Through her hands, she releases energy blocks, pain and discomfort, leaving her clients with freedom of movement, agility, peace, a renewed appreciation for themselves and their life journey, and a new level of love, joy and laughter in their lives. Every person awakens to a quantum leap in their energy and their physical appearance radiates with brilliance. Come and see for yourself! Enhance your life with Candace and Adama! You will be happy you did.

Here's what people are saying about their experiences with Candace and ADAMA:

Natalie Stillman | Financial Services Professional | www.nataliestillman@nylifeagents.com

"My stress levels run very high. I am a busy professional, a full time single mom of three and I actually attempt to have a social life and volunteer for my favorite causes. Each time Candace works with me, there is a shift in my life for the better. I am more focused on what matters now and the positive effects appear to be cumulative.

I honestly can't explain how she does what she does. I only know she has a special gift she has developed over her lifetime and each of us is fortunate to be able to participate in its benefits. Like the rest of life, you will only reap the benefits if you are willing to step outside the box and give it a try!"

Gini Craig | Helping Women & Children in Transition | <http://www.girlfriendscare.org>

"I didn't know what to expect before my first session with Candace, but I found her to be truly gifted. She helps me keep my life in balance!"

Dr. Jennifer Gunsallus, PhD | Relationship & Intimacy Doctor | www.drjennsden.com

"I immediately felt comfortable and safe with Candace so it was easy to be open to what she discovered in the session. I really appreciated the insights I gained into some emotional/mental blocks I didn't realize were there. Her approach was both fun and serious, and I liked the blend of physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual aspects. I experienced a deep clearing and balancing, and for the first time in a while, I felt very grounded and like I was home again in my body. When I walked out, I felt like I was stepping into my power with confidence!"

Dr Rob Irwin, PhD | Brain Efficiency Training | www.sportofmind.com

"I first must admit that I was drawn to Candace and during the introduction and at that time I knew that I would set up a healing session with her. The following week we scheduled an hour long healing session. Without her knowing almost nothing about me, she was able to reveal deep insight into my 'blockages'. Once she cleared the negative energy, I felt very re-connected to my spirit and my dreams. Since I left people have told me I look 10 years younger. I am definitely going back!"

Peter Turner | Million Dollar Marketing Extraordinaire! | www.magiclanternpaperproducts.com

"I'm on a hunt, to find that, in life, which fuels my passion, my spirituality, my business, and aliveness! When my passion is really on, my life shines in every way possible! Recently I experienced a healing with Candace. What happened perhaps cannot be described in words, but here goes. Jiffy-Pop! Yes, Jiffy-Pop popcorn! Just like that! When you pop popcorn in the microwave, it starts out with a few pops and then 'all the corn breaks loose'. She told me that she would open a space for MIRACLES to happen. She did just that and more and beyond more!

With COMPLETE PASSION I can honestly say that my time spent with Candace is the first of many! I'm passionate about her brilliant energy. She holds fast and true to her promises, by bringing forth an energy that renews, refreshes, rebuilds and rejoices the very core of our existence! Go to her, and experience her. You'll love it! You'll see!"
